Afloat on the watery main,

Another plank encounters,

On life's unresting sea,

Men meet...and greet...and sever..
Parting eternally."..Tennyson.

Nautical Philosophy

One night came on a hurricane
The sea was mountains rolling,
When Barney Buntling turned his quid
And he says to Billy Bowline:
"A strong sou'wester's blowing, Bill,
Oh don't ye hear it roar now,
Lord help 'em! how I pities all
Unfortunate folk on shore now.

"Foolhardy chaps that lives in towns,
What dangers they are all in,
E'en now lie quaking in their beds,
For fear the roof will fall in.
Poor devils, how they envy us,
And wishes, I've a notion,
For our good luck in such a storm
To be upon the ocean.

"And them who've business up to town
And absent from their houses,
Returning late at night to cheer
Their little babes and spouses.
While you and I, Bill, on the deck
Are comfortable lying.
My eyes! what tiles and chimney pots
About their heads are flying.

"How often have we seamen heard
How men are killed or undone,
By overturns of carriages,
And thieves and fires in London.
We know the dangers all landsmen run
From noblemen to tailors.
Then, Bill, let us thank Providence
That you and I be sailors".

U. S. M. S. "American Legion"

INVOCATION AT THE LAUNCHING OF STEAMSHIP AMERICAN LEGION, OCTOBER 11, 1919, BY REV. JOSEPH L. N. WOLF, PENN. STATE CHAPLAIN.

LORD God of the Universe, Ruler of the Land and of the Seas, we dedicate this Ship, built for missions of peace, to Thee. We offer it to Thee in memory of the 200,000 men, women and children of America who gave their lives as a result of cruel war on land and sea. Keep ever before our minds the memory of their noble sacrifice, and permit us not to forget the exalted and generous principles in defense of which they perished.

Send this Ship forth, O Lord named for the American Legion, to enjoy the full Liberty of the Seas, which we have upheld. Give it to be a messenger of faith, of peace, of happiness, of good will and prosperity to all who may come in contact with it. And as Thou didst save the bark of the Apostle Peter, when threatened with shipwreck on the stormy sea, so that he cried out----"Lord, save us, we perish," so guide this Ship through the Storms of the sea and through all other dangers.

Grant Thy gracious assistance to the Officers and Crew, whose duty it shall be to serve it. And grant that it may be a Hospitable Shelter to all those who may embark in it upon the deep even as guests.

These blessings we ask of Thee, Heavenly Father, through Christ, Thy Son, Who with Thee and the Holy Spirit liveth and reigneth, one God, for ever and ever.

AMEN.
